

CHECKLIST: CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF INFORMATION SOURCES

---

Enter your bibliographic citation information below:

1. Tell me about the author:

Very authoritative       Authoritative       Not authoritative       Not sure

2. Tell me about the currency of this information:

Timely (current/revised/updated)       Out of date       Date irrelevant       No date

3. Tell me about the publisher (or domain if a Web site):

If an article:  Scholarly (and/or)       Reputable       Not reputable       Not sure

If a Web page:  Personal       Scholarly       Commercial       Other _____

4. Tell me about the journal (if applicable):

Scholarly       Popular       Not sure

5. How does the initial content check out?

Looks good so far       Not worth pursuing       Jury is still out

6. Tell me about the intended audience:

- Suits my needs       Does not suit my needs       Not sure

7. Use your reasoning skills to tell me more about the quality of the content:

- Factual content       I detect opinion       I detect bias or propaganda       Not sure

8. Tell me about the coverage of the content:

- Primary source                                       Secondary source
 Extensive coverage                                       Marginal coverage
 Adds new information or ideas       Substantiates other sources       Both

9. Tell me about the overall style, functionality, and legibility of the content:

- Excellent       Very good       Satisfactory       Unsatisfactory

10. Tell me how this source "fits into" your overall concept, such as its strengths and weaknesses compared with the other materials you are using for your paper: