

Shipment Schedule

Deliveries will be scheduled in a way to balance fairly the intake of medical and general academic collections from the various contributing libraries, considering the libraries' readiness to send material and resource commitment in providing item record processing and shipping.

Shipment schedules will be arranged on a fiscal year, quarterly basis by the Director of JLF in coordination with the various contributing libraries, defined as the following:

June 2023 through Sept 2023

- June 1st (10 pallets) University of Texas San Antonio
- June 20th (10 pallets) Texas A&M University College Station
- July 3rd Monday (10 pallets) Texas A&M University Medical Science Library
- July 17th Monday (10 pallets) Texas A&M University Medical Science Library
- Aug 2nd Wednesday (10 pallets) Texas A&M University Medical Science Library
- Aug 16th Wednesday (10 pallets) Texas A&M University - College Station Serials
